

The Happy Hamlet

A special hideaway

An exceptional environment

Forget the traditional meeting rooms.

A centuries old farm-hamlet has been turned into a special hideaway on the southwestern French countryside, an hour north of Toulouse. Suitable for many important occasions, private or business, we'll make sure it'll be a happy one. And we're pretty sure, you will want to return. Just like so many others already have.

« Exceptional!!! Our regional business associates' meeting was a huge success. Thanks to you and your charming property, we held the best possible meetings while also disconnecting together from the daily routines! The idyllic location, rooms and common areas decorated with style, not to mention the pool and the sauna. I can only highly recommend, be it for a private or business occasion. »

— Regional Head of Samsung, SW France

A charming ambiance

Offer something special to your guests.

The open spaces, many outdoor terraces, hectares and hectares of surrounding nature and a Guest House with rooms full of stories and charm. We can assure you'll be in peace and calm, and that you will be able to concentrate on exactly what you came for. There's something special in the atmosphere - we warmly invite you to share it with us.

Tailored Services

Take advantage of our know-how.

We're small and we like to keep it that way! Because it makes a big difference. Whether a group of business leaders holding a strategy workshop, a company organizing team building, or a party of family and friends gathered for a special get-together, we can always guarantee an intimate experience and utmost attention to detail.
